

TIGERFISH

Through much effort, hardship and determination, contributor Keith Clover and friends finally discover what they so desperately sought after – a place where 20lb tigers on fly is a reality.

The Quest for Trophy Tigers

Above: A tiger this big will put a smile on anybody's dial: Grant Dunbar with a 21lb Duma River tigerfish.

Right: Rocky outcrops in deep water provide super habitat for baitfish and big tigers.

“Chewed up and spit out and booted off stage...” A line from an old Eminem song was playing over and over in my head (don't ask me why) as I sat, a disappointed bundle of frayed nerves, checking my leader. The months of planning, anticipation, delays, technical and logistical problems that had all led up to this one day just made it even harder.
